

Two Hearts

---

Background

This poem came to me during the Sunday worship at Calne Community Church. It spoke to me of the deep relationship between the Father and the believer, a relationship that will last for all eternity.

---

Two Hearts

As heart cries out to heart,
As our hearts call out to his,
The Father reaches out to us
And wipes away our tears.

And as we feel his touch,
Our hearts are joined with his.
Beating to the divine beat
Of the Father-heart of God.

Not merely joined for "now",
But united for all eternity.
No longer two, but one
In Heaven's glorious mystery.

So, lift your heart to God above
And he will draw you in
To the wonder of his presence
In the throne room of the King.

---

Pete Bennett
23rd April 2012
Calne Community Church